Police became involved at about 11:30pm on Thursday, August 9th when a 14-year-old Seaton girl was reported missing.

Police decided to organise a search party, which included the force helicopter.

People living near Colyton told Pulman's View they had woken up after midnight as the helicopter circulated above their homes.

An initial police statement, issued on Friday, August 10th said: "This relates to two missing youths from Seaton, reported at 11:30pm."

"They were found at 1:30am near Colyton Grammar School."

AXMINSTER

Funding approval for food bank

AN AXMINSTER foodbank has secured vital funding and will start operating in September.

The Big Lottery Fund has granted almost £8,000, which means that Canned Sunshine – a foodbank for low income families and the elderly – has the money it needs to get started.

The food bank is set up by The Awareness Centre, and the precise amount granted is £7,992.

Based on figures supplied by Devon County Council, The Awareness Centre, which is a charity, estimated in May that up to 40 families in Axminster and the surrounding area were in "extreme need" of help to put food on the table.

FORMER Axminster carnival queens are sought by organisers of this year's showpiece.

The search is spearheaded by the carnival queen of 1991 and 1992, Elaine Voysey, who said: "I am looking for any former carnival queens wishing to participate in this year's carnival.

"I would like to resurrect Axminster's carnival queen as it is Jubilee year."

She has already managed to find three fellow former carnival queens, but would love to hear from more.

COLYTON/SEATON

Runaway arrest

A YOUNG man has been released without charge after being accused of helping a 14-year-old girl run away from home.

The overnight drama, which involved a police search on foot and by helicopter, started in Seaton and ended in Colyton.

Police became involved at about 11.30pm on Thursday, August 9th when a 14-year-old Seaton girl was reported missing. Police decided to organise a search party, which included the force helicopter.

From the editor's chair Build on this spirit...

IN THIS spot last week I wrote about the return of the feel-good factor following the awe-inspiring achievements of the GB athletes in the 2012 London Olympic games.

That pride in being British continued last week, with our medal tally increasing every day, culminating in that jaw-dropping performance by Mo Farrah in the 5,000 metres on Saturday evening, and with GB finishing in third place in the medal table which has exceeded everyone's expectations.

One of the intended legacies of the Olympics was to inspire the next generation of young people to take up sport and make a real and lasting life change.

And I think there is already evidence that kids are taking to the playing fields of East Devon and copying their new-found heroes. I even saw one group of youngsters playing handball, not universally popular in this country.

The 2012 Olympics are being described as the best ever and Team GB has certainly delivered.

And now it's time for GB to follow suit and that means the politicians have to raise their game and start winning some medals in building on the sharp rise in public morale.

That calls for more than just providing funding for our brilliant athletes to ensure our successes are repeated at Rio de Janeiro in 2016, popular as that may be. During these days of austerity they need to raise their game, put to one side their pathetic tit-for-tat politicking and put the country before their own personal ambitions.

In short, they should be inspired to do better and not allow the pride generated in the last two weeks by the magnificent sporting spectacle that has been the Olympics to be dissipated by the continuing political malaise.

♦ BACK to this corner of East Devon. On Friday (at 6.30pm) we all have the chance to recognise Olympic glory when Salcombe Regis' Mary King will ride her silver medal winning horse Imperial Cavalier through Sidmouth town centre as a token of gratitude for all the local support she has received.

An occasion not to be missed.

FUN AND GAMES AT KIDS CLUB WEEK

SEATON children enjoyed a fun packed week of games and activities at the annual 'Kids Club Summer Week.'

Around 20 children joined in the week at Crossroad Christian Fellowship, learning about the bible, taking part in crazy games and enjoying a special trip out to Crealy Adventure Park.

The week focused around the Ten Commandments with themes such as 'Honour your parents,' 'Love your neighbour' and 'Watch your words' being the main focus for each day.

The group enjoyed a special Olympic themed day on Tuesday with a variety of sporty games from firing paper aeroplanes through Olympic rings and doing the limbo to an indoor relay complete with bouncy hopper and blow sailing.

Some funny sketches with a space theme also added to the enjoyment of the week with young volunteer helpers Ellie, Ollie, Marcus, Rosanna and Graham all taking part to bring the stories and messages of the week alive.

The week ended with a bang with the kids club tradition of leader gunging, where Ollie and Marcus were covered in slimy sticky homemade guage.

RNLI: Thanks for your support

THE Seaton, Beer and District Branch of the RNLI would like to thank everyone who donated during their annual street collections.

Despite torrential rain in Beer on Saturday, July 7th, three collectors bravely collected a total of £88.97.

At the street collection in Seaton, including outside the Seaton Co-op store on Saturday July 21st, a further £305.61 was collected, and in Colyton on Saturday, July 28th £104.29 was collected.

The seventh Annual Duck Race Day raised £601.82.

Once again with more rain, the Brew for the Crew event on the July 7th and Brew for the Crew and Tea Dance on Thursday July 12th a total of £469.14 was raised.

Once again members of the RNLI group would like to thank all their volunteers, supporters, Beer Lifeboat Week and Duck Race Day Sponsors, people who donated items for the week, and Jimmy and Jessie Purvis from Seaton who support them so regularly.

All supporters are greatly appreciated by the local branch of the RNLI and at RNLI headquarters.

New volunteers are always needed and welcome to join with ongoing fundraising - visit the members of the Seaton, Beer and District Branch at their events or telephone 01297 23040 for a branch information letter.

The next event will be the annual sponsored walk, which is to be held in October. The date, route and details will be announced in September.

Carnival to stage busking competition

PLACES are filling up for the August Bank Holiday Busking Competition at Seaton Carnival.

Organiser Jon Croose said there had been a good response to the August 27th competition, which is being held as part of the annual carnival week.

Up for grabs are cash prizes and a chance to perform at the variety night in Seaton Town Hall on August 31st.

Jon said: "We have a good range of entries from folk to pop, with performers of all ages. This is the first time Seaton has held a busking competition as part of the carnival and there is a still a chance for people to enter - so get your entry forms in now."

Organisers are offering prizes in a range of categories, including Best Band, Best Individual, and Best Junior, plus a Spirit of Carnival prize for the musician who collects the most money for charity and puts most effort into their performance by way of fancy dress.

Jon explained that the overall winner would open the packed variety night with a 15-minute slot on stage in the town hall and that money donated to participating buskers by the public would also go to local good causes.

He added: "The judges will be looking for musical ability, passion, entertainment value and audience interaction. This is a real chance for local musicians to show off their skill, personality and performance ability."

Anyone who wants to enter the busking competition should contact Jon for an entry form by e-mail at jfc208@exeter.ac.uk or by text on 07931552778.

Junior entrants must be aged under 16 and have their parents' consent. All performers must register in advance and pay a registration fee of £5.

The competition is open to non-amplified acoustic singers and musicians only and each performer will be asked to play for 15 minutes, during which time they will be judged. Deadline for entries is Saturday, August 25th.

Helicopter used in search

"The force helicopter and ground units were involved in the search."

When asked how old the youths were, and if they had simply got lost or deliberately disappeared, police issued another statement saying: "A 14-year-old girl and 19-year old boy went missing."

"The 19-year-old has been arrested for helping her run away."

"He lives outside the force area and will be interviewed later today (Friday)."

A third statement, issued on Monday, August 13th, was short and to the point, saying: "He was released without charge."

Whitford show beats the weather

■ SHOW chairman Maureen Davey introduces Radio 4 gardening expert Anne Swithinbank to the crowd

By Philip Evans
philip@pemedial.co.uk

KEEN gardeners will remember the summer of 2012 as one of the most difficult growing seasons, especially for flowers, on record.

But the green-fingered residents of Whitford and district managed to beat the weather and produce some excellent blooms and vegetable entries for the village's annual summer show.

This was recognised by gardening expert Anne Swithinbank, a regular panelist on Radio 4's Gardeners' Question Time, who was invited to open the show.

She told the exhibitors at the opening ceremony: "I think you all deserve a medal for finding any exhibits at all."

■ VILLAGE youngsters who entered a special hat competition to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee anniversary

Mrs Swithinbank was introduced by the village produce association's new chairman, Maureen Davey, who paid tribute to her predecessor, Christopher Loud, who had decided to stand down but was still an active committee member.

Mrs Davey confirmed that the judges were highly impressed with the standard of the exhibits, taking into consideration the difficulties caused by the wet weather, and she reported that the number of entries and entrants was well in line with recent years.

The show was a personal triumph for Mr Loud who walked away with six trophies. He has been exhibiting at the show for many years but this was his most successful to date.

The trophies were presented by Christopher Pole Carew, a former High Sheriff of Nottinghamshire who has lived locally for many years.

Mr Pole Carew paid tribute to all those who worked so hard to make the show such a success, especially those behind the scenes.

Apart from Mr Loud receiving the trophies for the most prize money, other winners included Brian Gardner (best sweet peas), Jean Underdown (best flower arrangements and most prize money in that section), Brenda Clark

(most prize money in members' flowers and open flowers and best rose exhibit), Mal Davey (most prize money in members' flowers and vegetables sections), John Lang (best gladioli and best begonia), Edward Meakin (most prize money in young people's section) and Mary Thomas (most prize money in preserves and cakes section).

As well as the annual produce show, the event also hosted a number of stalls and members of the committee served teas.

Chard Concert Brass, regular attenders at the show for many years, provided entertainment during the afternoon.

College's challenge

AXE Valley Community College has announced that it will launch the Minster Challenge this year.

The Minster Challenge is a running race which will be held in Axminster on Sunday, October 7th as a fundraiser for two college departments.

The run comes in two distances; a seven-mile undulating multi terrain course for those aged 17 and over; and a three-mile cub course for the 11 to 16-year-olds as well as less experienced runners.

Co-organiser Diane Roberts said: "On the day it is proposed there will be refreshments, a performance from the school steel band, a majorettes display and hose downs from the local fire brigade."

"The run is the first of many events to raise money and this time it will benefit the PE and music departments."

More information and applications are available at www.axe-valley.devon.sch.uk under the community link.

News briefs

AXE Valley and West Dorset Ring and Ride took more than £50 at its stall at Co-op, West Street branch, on Thursday, August 2nd.

As reported last week, the charity has embarked on a fundraising campaign with a £750 target.

If successful, Axminster Care Service has promised to match-fund.

Chairman Sandra Ward thanked everyone who helped out, spent their money and Co-op for accommodating the stall.

She said: "Every little helps to keep the service running. We took £53, so with the match funding from Axminster Care Service, that will send the total to £106."

Clair's footpath triumph

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster woman could hardly believe her eyes when a footpath she campaigned for started to take shape.

After a battle that involved two petitions, numerous fliers and lobbying, Clair Lawrence got what she wanted – a footpath along Stoney Lane at Axminster Primary School.

Her concern was that pedestrians approaching Stoney Lane via the footpath running alongside Axe Valley Community College's sports field risked being hit by cars when checking if it was safe to cross.

She decided to act last year after having had two close calls herself when taking her son Charlie to school.

Devon County Council (DCC) said its aim was to create a footpath at the top of the field to run along Stoney Lane.

But Clair felt there was a lack of progress and launched a petition for a lollipop person to be appointed as a stop-gap measure until the path was constructed.

She amassed 256 signatures but the petition was apparently lost or mislaid by officials in County Hall.

A lollipop person never materialised despite money for infrastructure being found and the search for a volunteer having a promising start.

The second petition was for a definite footpath completion date, which took no less than 265 signatures.

DCC said a planning application was being prepared, but there was renewed concern when

■ SHAPING UP: Clair and her son Charlie inspect the emerging footpath she campaigned for its submission was delayed earlier this year.

But DCC kept its promise and work on the footpath is now in full swing.

When she visited the site on Thursday, August 9th, Clair said: "I'm over the moon."

"I can't believe it is actually happening at last after many years of people trying.

"It feels like a great achievement."

She praised everyone who supported her campaign and a DCC spokesperson said: "It [the footpath] is expected to be complete by August 31st."

Pub pair celebrate 20 years of pulling pints

■ MINE'S A PINT: Brian and Denise Jenkins

BRIAN and Denise Jenkins are about to celebrate 20 years in charge of New Inn, Kilmington.

The popular couple will lay on a buffet and cocktails for their customers to celebrate the milestone in the evening of Saturday, August 18th.

The actual anniversary is two days later on the 20th, but the party will be on the 18th. Things didn't look so good in February 2004, though, when the pub was destroyed by fire after spontaneous combustion of the thatch.

But the village spirit shone through as locals did what they could to help. The pub reopened a year later and Brian and Denise recalled: "We will never forget the people who rallied round to help us. It was amazing. Thanks again."

All sorts of help were offered, and Brian said: "Some even bought us clothes."

They originate from Port Talbot, Wales, but lived in Crawley before moving to Kilmington. Brian had left the army after 24 years and they were looking for a business.

One thing led to another and they were contacted by Palmer's Brewery. They drove to Kilmington to have a look at New Inn, and Brian explained: "It was very nice. We didn't even get out of the car. It was the wife's decision."

"But we didn't expect to be here for 20 years. The life expectancy [of tenure] is about five years in this business they reckon."

Denise added: "At the start we didn't think we would survive, but 20 years on we are still here. We couldn't have done it without the great support of our skittle, crib and boule teams, and we are also the home of the British Legion."

Beer craft club set to launch

A NEW craft club is starting in Beer and avid crafter Christine Teague would love to share ideas and techniques with you.

A qualified and experienced teacher, she'll be there to guide and support you as you learn new skills and gain the confidence to spread your creative wings.

She can advise you on the best tools and materials to use for the different techniques you'll learn, and is happy to supply them for you from the extensive Stampin' Up catalogue.

Christine says: "Indulging in hand-made crafts may seem like a luxury in these busy times, but it's actually a great stress-buster.

"It can be an inexpensive way of giving unique cards, presents and keepsakes.

"You won't necessarily be starting new crafts - you can use new techniques to enhance the crafts you already do."

All ages and abilities are very welcome to join Christine at the Beer Craft Club, which will meet at the Congregational Church Hall fortnightly, starting in October.

It's just £6 for the introductory session, including materials for three projects to complete and take home.

For more details, please contact Christine on 01297 20325 or email christine.teague@gmx.co.uk

In the meantime, you can read Christine's blog at <http://hectoreshousedesigns.wordpress.com>.

Wildlife fun for all the family

THE Axe Estuary Wetlands Wet and Wild Weekend has become an annual favourite. The weekend kicks off on Friday August 17th at 9am, with Mammals of the Marshes - your chance to see some of the smaller mammals such as shrews and voles up close.

Usually hidden in the drier parts of the reed bed and amongst the coarser grasses the small mammals are virtually impossible to see under normal conditions but, for a few hours, the Countryside Rangers will trap just a few for visitors to have a look at, before releasing them back into their environment unharmed.

Events on Friday go late into the night so dress warmly and bring a torch for a Bat Walk starting at 8pm.

Using electronic detectors, each species of bat that live on the Wetlands can be identified as they make sounds at different frequencies, usually out of range of most people's hearing apart from the very young, but easily picked up by a detector.

Friday's late night is followed by an early start on the Saturday with a Moth Breakfast from 8am. There will be a chance to see a dazzling selection of moths up close and learn more about them.

The highlight of Saturday afternoon will be the Mud Walk. Not for the faint-hearted, this is a wade along the edge of the Axe to see parts of the river and nature reserve that people don't usually get to see.

Numbers are limited on this activity, so booking is essential. Any children who want to take part need to be over nine-years-old and accompanied by an adult.

Sunday morning will play host to a Bird Ringing Breakfast, led by the Axe Estuary Ringing Group.

Other activities going on over the weekend include bird watching, pond dipping, a dragonfly walk, face painting and willow weaving as well as a range of games, trails and arts and crafts.

Most of the activities are free although there is a small charge for the craft activities.

Cakes and refreshments are available and there will be a BBQ from 12 noon until 3pm each day.

Free parking is available at the rear of Seaton Cemetery, off the Seaton to Colyford road.

Most of the activities are accessible to people in wheelchairs and people with limited mobility.

If you would like to know more about the Wet and Wild Weekend have a look at East Devon District Council's website - you will find Countryside in the Out and About section.

Alternatively, pick up a leaflet from Seaton TIC or the library, contact the Countryside team on 01395 517557, or phone Diane Berry on 07814 477422.

Air ambulance week is fly-away success

FUNDRAISERS in Seaton came out in full force for a week of activities for the annual Devon Air Ambulance Week. The week long programme of events was deemed a great success after many came along to support the group for their busiest week yet, taking to the esplanade and surrounding area for fun, games and local entertainment.

Businesses in Seaton showed their full support at the start of the week with a cribbage competition and pub quiz at the Eyre Court, skittles competition and bingo at PJ's Social Club and a darts competition at the Vault Bar.

The week's main activities kick-started on Friday with 'Pirate Day' - a children's fancy dress pirate parade starting at Windsor Gardens. With children decked out in full pirate attire, and prizes for the most swashbuckling outfits, the pirate clan led their way through the town, showcasing their costumes.

Saturday played host to a series of events throughout the day, beginning with an all day market, supported by a number of local groups and organisations as well as entertainment on the main stage.

Stage highlights included the young and funky street dance group, ConfiDance, a sing-a-long from Seaton's Brownies group and a number of talented local singers.

A huge number of entrants also took part in a dog show, showcasing their favourite furry friends and competing for the waggiest tail, best in show, the cutest puppy and the dog the judge would most like to take home.

Seaton's town crier, David Craner, also embraced the week, supporting many of the events around the town and hosting a junior town crier competition.

Sunday ended the week with a bang with a classic vehicle show, sponsored by the Jaguar Enthusiasts Club, and a biker's day out, with the esplanade jam packed full of wonderful cars and motorcycles. Displays from Seaton Majorettes, and local performers such as Adam Sweet, Alan West and Steve Black, One Umbrella Music and the Patches kept visitors to the event entertained as they enjoyed the sunshine.

Supporters of the Devon Air Ambulance would like to thank the many who came along and supported them throughout the week, which has been the busiest yet, as well as the many local businesses, groups and organisations that helped the week run smoothly.

Although it is not yet clear how much money has been raised, the group are pleased that the week has brought back a little bit more community spirit to the town.

PRIDE AND JOY | A classic vehicle show ran by the Jaguar Enthusiasts Club alongside a 'Bikers Day Out' event had the Esplanade lined with stand out cars and motorbikes

MAN'S BEST FRIENDS | A dog show attracted a huge variety of dogs and their owners who competed to win in classes such as 'waggiest tail' and 'cutest puppy'

Postponed church fete raises £1,200

THE annual fete of St Andrew's Parish Church in Colyton was finally held on Saturday, having previously been postponed due to flooding earlier in the summer.

This time the sun shone down on the event, held on the church green. Traditional entertainment included tombolas, a raffle and stalls selling cakes, books, plants and bric-a-brac.

Cream teas and cakes were served in St Andrew's Hall and musical entertainment came from Bridport-based band, One Night Stand.

Many local organisations joined in the fun, with games being run by the 1st Colyton Guides and Brownies and face painting with Colyton Caterpillars. Messy Church organisers also ran craft activities for children.

There was also a bouncy castle and a chance for fete-goers to have their portrait drawn.

The fete attracted about 300 people, raising an estimated £1,250 which will be split between general church funds and the overseas emergency relief fund. This is less than last year's total but organisers have said that, as the fete was postponed, it clashed with several other local events.

■ SWEET TREATS: The chocolate tombola proved popular with church fete-goers

Neighbours' good deed restores faith

ON Tuesday, July 31st, you kindly printed a letter for me in my quest to find a photo of John Hendley, who founded Colyton YMCA Youth Centre. Sadly, as yet, nothing has come of it.

However, my letter today is about something entirely different.

During the early hours of Saturday, August 4th some mean-minded person decided my two flower pots were worth stealing. I do wonder if stealing them from me, an 87-year-old widow, who planted them with the Union flag to celebrate the Olympics, made them feel heroic?

But it is not my reason for writing, I would like to show there is another side to human nature.

Imagine what a wonderful surprise I had when I opened my front door to find two of my neighbours had bought new ones for me.

A very big thank you to Sheila and Diane for this generous deed. And a big thank you for restoring my faith in mankind.

Olympic inspiration

STAFF and pupils from Shute Community Primary School travelled to Cardiff for some Olympic action.

Their chosen action was the ladies' football game between Japan and South Africa on Tuesday, July 31st.

Despite both teams failing to break the deadlock, the day was described as "amazing".

Teacher Duncan Rae said: "From the moment they arrived in Cardiff the atmosphere was extraordinary.

"The whole day was amazing. The adults and the children found the whole Olympic experience something they will never forget."

A school spokesperson added: "This year the school has been focussing on the Olympic and Paralympic values, celebrating children who shine with each of these.

"They have taken part in individual and team activities in school and across schools in the Axe Valley and participation in sporting clubs has increased and, in some cases, doubled.

"The children have really entered into the spirit of the Games and have got involved."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

FR JOHN Streeting, Rector of the Axe Valley Mission Community, writes: I imagine many readers can remember Black Monday – or was it Black Wednesday. Either way it was the day the Stock Market collapsed. Well, we've just experienced 'Super Saturday' as the media have been quick to dub it. This time, far from being a cause of considerable anxiety, it is the reason for great celebration.

If like me, you're not massively interested in sport generally – although I am a very keen cricket fan – you still cannot fail to be deeply impressed by the achievements of our Olympians.

They are an inspiration to us all in terms of their dedication, single mindedness, determination and sheer hard work. These are qualities that are invaluable in a Christian context although not exclusively so.

I am avoiding any bland comparisons with St Paul's strictures about running the race and similar references about the Christian way of life, because our Olympians, whether from this country or others, espouse many different faiths and none. What we can all do is take inspiration from achievements in the past two weeks and I, for one, give thanks to God for them.

Continuing from last week, on the Exeter Diocese review of its resources, with a reminder that the individual questionnaires about future directions and priorities for the work of the Diocese have to be sent by August 17th to the Old Deanery, Exeter, EX1 1HS.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

ON WEDNESDAY, August 15th the All Age Café at St Michael's Colyford will be open from 10am to noon.

On Sunday, August 19th there will be a special Songs of Praise at Colyton Church at 6:30pm – choices may be requested on the list in the church.

Southleigh Church joined the Village Fayre just past, seeking support for the repairs to the church roof.

The King's Club for the 5-11 ages are in session from August 28th-31st at the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre.

Branscombe offers two dates for diaries – On Saturday, September 1st there will be a coffee morning in the Village Hall from 10:30am to 12 noon. And local residents are reminded that a full peal of bells will be rung from 10am to 1pm on Saturday, September 29th.

HAVING retired from the construction industry in 2002, Colyford resident Clive Stone says sometimes he feels like he is still in full-time work with the amount of local organisations he's involved with.

Clive and his wife Paula moved from Bristol to Backwell and the Clevedon with their two children. Having always enjoyed holidays in Devon, the family moved to Sidbury before settling in Colyford in 2000.

A former parish councillor, Clive is now a trustee of Colyford Memorial Hall and the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre in Colyton, and an active campaigner for changes to the proposed Stop Line Way cycle route through Colyford, among other local groups.

● YOU'VE recently been campaigning for changes to the Stop Line Way cycle route through Colyford – why is this so important to you?

It is a matter of recognising what is best for the residents of Colyford who need the road safety benefits all year round and balancing these with the requirements of cyclists.

There had previously been a quest to bring the route through Colyton where they no doubt would have appreciated the extra customers and we would have thought that the cyclists would have appreciated the opportunity to visit our own specialist cycle shop. If they do not want a route through Colyton, why should there be a route through Colyford?

● WHAT would you like to see changed about the route? There is an obvious route that avoids the A3052 and Seaton Road through Colyford, which is crying out for the will and means of achieving it, both without spending money now on a temporary scheme if a long-term solution could be found and have this money put towards it, especially if it could be implemented in the near future and result in a better and safer long term solution to the traffic pinch point where the tramway crosses the A3052 by the White Hart.

● HOW can people support these proposals?

There are already several people working on this in the background and when these proposals are made known, people can help by attending and supporting any public meetings that are called and then by also supporting any campaigns which are initiated and writing directly to EDDC and DCC with their views.

● HOW did you get involved with the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre?

When I became a parish councillor in 2007, the chairman Andrew Parr gave each of the five new councillors a specific role and mine was to become involved with the new youth centre building because of my construction background. This then moved on to being involved with helping to run the building as a business as one of the trustees and then becoming a member of the youth club committee.

● HOW would you encourage others to get involved?

All they are looking for is support, whether it is some of their time, some assistance with events, fundraising or donating equipment or money, everything is appreciated. New trustees are also very welcome and their pro-active involvement is most welcome. The Youth Club is also looking for new members in both the committee and the youngsters.

In a community like Colyton there are many excellent organisations and groups which work well and are supported by people, but if everyone gave some support to all the organisations, they could do even better and return more to the community.

It is not only the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre that would benefit from more support. I do think that the Colyton Carnival is a tremendous community event, as is the Colyford Goose Fayre, and both organisations are also always looking for more support and volunteers to join in the enjoyment, not forgetting the Colyton Tractor Run.

● ARE you a member of any other local organisations? I belong to 41 Club, Colyton Parish History Society and am a trustee of Colyford Memorial Hall, which is currently taking up much of my time in the continuing programme of external and internal refurbishment and improvement.

● WHAT are you other personal interests?

Gardening, DIY, travelling, family and family history have kept me enjoyably occupied for many years, especially since I gave up sports. Building and work associated with this is also a personal interest which I have been involved with since I can first remember.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Historically, a builder involved with the construction of the Pyramids and one from Stonehenge; and Benjamin Spooner, the captain of the Marie Celeste, would be a fascinating evening. Celebrity wise, Billy Connolly, Ronnie Barker and perhaps Dolly Parton. But the one choice I would make would be to invite Isambard Kingdom Brunel, James Green and Fred Dibnah who would be very good, interesting and entertaining company and would certainly be particularly helpful in answering some questions I have about bridges in Colyford.

● WHERE is your ideal holiday destination?

A trip on the Orient Express to Venice, then a cruise to and through the Panama Canal with the destination being a visit to Machu Picchu and a tour around some of the associated Inca sites as a holiday trip of a lifetime with fantastic and varied memories. Back to reality, one of my ideal destinations would be Fuerteventura for a break in a hot climate relatively close to home just before Christmas to prepare for the festive season ahead.

TONY JACKSON

There are two sides to every argument

FURTHER to my recent mention of the newly formed group the Axe Invasives, who are trying to remove the invasive Himalayan Balsam from the Axe catchment area, a reader, Sarah Futter, has made a plea on behalf of all beekeepers in the South West.

Please, she writes, leave Himalayan balsam alone until it has flowered and then remove it. "This year," she says, "has been dire for foraging bees and the balsam is one of the few plants that is now flowering, and which bees can use to stock up for the winter."

"Sugar syrup can be fed, but it is more natural and healthier for bees to gather natural products such as Himalayan balsam pollens. The only other option is ivy, but this solidifies in the hive and bees can starve to death in a box full of ivy honey."

Sarah goes on to say that she is well aware how damaging and invasive the balsam can be, but it is also a godsend for bees, not just this year, but annually.

Timed correctly, she says, the Himalayan balsam can be removed after the bees have collected their winter stores and before it seeds.

It is a valid point, but the timing is indeed critical as the flowers soon turn into explosive seed pods, scattering their contents for feet in every direction to establish a new crop for the following year. What, I wonder, is the view of the Axe Invasives Group to this aspect of the problem?

Meanwhile, still on bees, Jane Hopkins, a keen wild life gardener, tells me that she grows wild flowers in her garden for bees and other insects, but had a surprise when a colony of bumble bees took up residence in one of her bird boxes.

She sent me a photo of the bees in the box and wonders what will happen to them when the weather becomes colder?

The bees are, I suspect, the common buff-tailed humble bees, insects which usually inhabit vole or mouse holes in banks, but in this case have decided a bird box is just the thing!

The males die off before the winter, leaving the females to hibernate and then, in the spring, when the days warm up to forage for pollen and then lay fertilised eggs. Jane Hopkins may well discover that her bird box has become a permanent bumble bee colony.

The roe rut, which takes place at this time of the year, in our area has been fitful and inconsistent. During the warm spell at the end of July I witnessed a buck chasing a doe in a determined fashion, and received reports that the rut was in full swing.

However, the advent of rain and much cooler weather last week dampened enthusiasm. Normally the rut only extends for around ten days into August and by now may well be over, leaving the exhausted bucks to retire into thick woodland to recover.

The other main species of deer in our region, the sika, does not rut until the beginning of October when the stag's eerie whistling call can be heard echoing in the deep, south Dorset woodlands. Incidentally, a rutting sika stag can often lose all fear of humans and can prove very dangerous.

On the subject of woodlands, Dorset Wildlife Trust has teamed up with the Small Woods Association to help enhance the small Purbeck woodlands. A Week in the Woods will take place from September 24th to 28th with 24 places available and an apprenticeship for one participant at the end of the course.

The object is to revive vital woodland crafts and the chosen apprentice will spend three years learning woodland skills. The cost of the week is £124, including basic accommodation. For further information call Fran Fowkes on 07903 206518.

NOSTALGIA THROUGH THE EYES OF PULMAN'S FOUNDER

Cricketing days at Stockland

WHEN local historians are looking for information on East Devon towards the end of the 19th century they invariably turn to the old copies of Pulman's Weekly News.

These are kept in the Somerset County records offices at Yeovil and Taunton and are readily accessible by appointment.

Regular reader Richard Griffiths contacted me recently to tell me of some fascinating information uncovered about the playing of cricket in the Yarty and Corry valley.

He wrote saying: "Last winter I was privileged to view the research of Alan Ash, of Stockland, who had spent almost every Tuesday for three years researching the Pulman's Archives from 1857 for information on Stockland.

"I was astounded by all sorts of wonderful reporting but I was especially taken by a number of cricketing items that traced the history of the sport much earlier than most of us realised.

"There were a couple of matches reported in the 1880s at Stockland versus Axminster and Uppottery but there was an even earlier report of two matches in 1862 versus Dalwood.

"I attach one of these for your perusal (albeit the item of 42 tubs of brandy floating in Lyme Bay is even more interesting!).

"The date for the earliest was August 19th and yes, there is to be a repeat match on Sunday August 19th coming up at Stockland versus a Dalwood XI.

"I hope you are able to report this as not only does Pulman's still survive but village cricket is still alive and well."

Unfortunately, the copy of the cutting sent to me by Mr Griffiths was not of sufficient clarity to be reproduced here but it reported that Stockland won the game with six wickets lost.

And on the 42 barrels of floating brandy, Pulman's readers were informed that they had been taken to the custom house in Lyme Regis but they had been in the water for so long that much of the contents were "found unfit to drink".

Which makes me wonder what state the customs officer was in after deciding the contents of the barrels were unfit for consumption!

MILLWEY RISE FC was formed in 1958 and have played in the Perry Street and District League ever since.

In their first season they won Division One, the Division One Cup and the Arthur Gage Cup. Over the years they have mainly played in Division Two and the Reserves in Division Four.

Millwey have won the league's Tommy Tabberer cup in 1987 and 1988, the Jack Venn Cup in 1964, 1965, 2003, 2006, 2007 and 2010 and the Ken Hodges Cup 2004 and 2006.

In recent years Millwey has progressed on and off the pitch and won the Division Two title in 2010. Last year saw Millwey move from their ground of 50 years, affectionately known as the 'slope', to Cloakham Lawns Sports Centre and have started a youth section for the first time.

The new ground was named "Harry's Field" in memory of the late Harry Dutfield, the founder of Axminster Carpets who provided the land for the Cloakham sports complex. Last season was one of many firsts for Millwey, winning the Division One title and winning promotion to the Perry Street League Premier Division for the first time.

Millwey also won the Chard Hospital and Stan Wilson Cups for the first time and reached the Devon Intermediate Cup final, losing on penalties, along with capturing the Division One Cup for second time.

After three years in charge, Shane Featherstone has decided to step down as player-manager, and the experienced Kevin Turner has taken over as their first team manager. Simon Flint continues to run the Reserves.

Millwey are having a signing on day on Saturday, August 18th with a game between the 1st XI and the Reserves. For more details Kevin can be contacted on 0787 0930 915 and Simon on 0775 648 9617.

They can provide you with a range of coal fuels, including smokeless coal for open fires. Peter and Sarah say they are currently on the lookout for a site in or close to Honiton where they could relocate the business once Aldi has finalised it's plans for the town.

Mr Scott-Allen said: "If there are any potential sites in Honiton I would be really interested to hear about them. Also if anyone has a site close to Honiton that we could use then please get in touch." To contact Mr Scott-Allen call on 01404 45966 or email peterscottallen111@btinternet.com

The Summer Holidays can be a stressful time for everyone, including your dog. There will be so much disruption, whether it is having family to stay, travelling to relatives or if you're holidaying abroad. Imagine what it is like for your much loved pet; their normal routine has gone. The whole world your dog has become familiar with, such as smells, household objects, and people can change, and you should be aware that your dog could become stressed.

Caring for dogs is our passion and we believe strongly in the quality of care we provide for the dogs that stay with us. So why not consider placing your dog in our caring boarding kennels. We will ensure your pet is kept safe, therefore minimising the affect on their stress levels whilst you can enjoy your holiday.

If you decide to place your dog in our kennels you will need to ensure the dog is up to date with vaccinations and worming. Please contact us for more details on: 01392 445312.

GADJO AT THE GROVE

THEY came as musical exiles from furthest Gadjistan and choose Barcelona as the place where they would open their suitcases and air their instruments. Seven musicians bound by their Gadjistani culture, a rich and festive culture with bewitching rhythms and funny dances, exuberant, theatrical melodies and a mish-mash of languages. Gadjio have toured extensively through Europe, sowing their musical mayhem as they go, from gypsy-cumbia, balkanic-ska to reggae-swing and surf tango. Sometimes they appear playing an intimate acoustic set on the market square, sometimes under the lights of a festival stage, but wherever it is expect the dust to fly as the music kidnaps your heart and lifts your feet into an unstoppable dance.

That is what they put about to the media, but can you believe it? Anyone inclined to investigate further might find some discrepancies. First, a minute examination of an atlas will fail to identify any such country as Gadjistan, and a brief and cursory chat with the members of the band will evoke responses in a diverse range of languages, but none of them Gadjistani.... even if it existed. So, their cover having been broken, your reporter has managed to garner an alternative but no less fascinating scenario.

It is true they are based in Barcelona and have been for nine years. But the leader, if there is such a thing in this pulsing commune is Fraggie (vocals and accordion) is from England, as is Sam (clarinet, saxes) from Devon, Emma (saxes, flute) from Norfolk, and George (double bass, trumpet, vocals) from Somerset/Devon. Then we have Paul (euphonium, trumpet, harmonica) from Maryland, USA; Xabi (guitar, banjo, vocals) from the Basque country, France, and Jerry (percussion, vocals) from La Plata, Argentina, and everybody sings in their own tongue when so inspired. So there, you have the alternative, believe which one you will. But what is true is that they are undoubtedly one of the most exciting bands anywhere, both to the ear and to the eye, combining serious musical ability with humour and irrepressible joie de vivre. It is impossible to leave a Gadjio gig without a huge smile on your face. Catch them at the Jurassic Folk Summer Special at the Grove, Seaton, 7.45pm on Wednesday, August 22nd. Advance price tickets at £7 are available from www.eastdevonfolk.org or 01297 20064.

From Colyton to the West End!

BACK to Broadway Musical Theatre Schools ran its annual summer school week at Colyton Grammar last week, giving local children a true taste of the performing arts, including a special effects theatrical make up workshop in 'trauma', which left parents wondering if they should take their children to A&E! Blood, cuts and open wounds looked far too real to be fake!

However, the highlight of the week for the children was to be coached by professional musical theatre performer Christopher Hughes, who directed a stunning performance of the children's very own 'Rock Musical' culminating in an extra special treat for the audience when Chris sang 'Stars' from 'Les Misérables' for them, entralling parents and children alike.

Chris has been touring major UK theatres as lead vocalist with Back to Broadway's stage show and during the summer school week heard that he is to make his West End debut in December at the Criterion Theatre, Piccadilly in the new 'Peppa Pig Show'! This is going to be a highly demanding role for Chris as he will be working state of the art puppets as well as singing, dancing and acting the part of 'George'!

Back to Broadway are pleased to be working with local charity Children's Hospice South West, raising funds from performances given by their summer workshops and year round school, which runs every Saturday at Musbury under the direction of Georgina Hone. Since opening the schools in 2009 Back to Broadway has raised over £800 for the hospice, and hopes to reach £1000 by Christmas 2012.

Toyota sets the style for summer with new yaris edition and trend

TOYOTA brings a bit of welcome styling sizzle to Britain's bleak summer with the timely introduction of the new Yaris Edition and Yaris Trend. Adding a healthy dose of visual pizzazz to Yaris's sharp appearance, both come with blacked-out C-pillars which, combining with darkened rear privacy glass and contrasting with Tyrol Silver or Cirrus White paintwork, create a floating roof effect.

Yaris Edition takes the entry-level T2 grade and adds a series of sporty features, including 15-inch Podium anthracite (smoke-finished), machined alloy wheels, front fog lamps, rear privacy glass, a dash of extra chrome exterior rear trim, a tachometer and a leather-trimmed gear knob. Manual air conditioning can be specified as an option.

Edition is powered by Toyota's award-winning 1.0-litre VVT-i petrol engine, with five-speed manual transmission. Three and five-door versions are offered, from £11,695.

Yaris Trend takes the sports-themed Yaris SR as its starting point, adding the new Podium alloys in 16-inch form and a chrome tailpipe trim. The Toyota Touch & Go multimedia system with satellite navigation can be specified as an option.

Power is from the 1.33-litre VVT-i petrol unit, with a choice of six-speed manual or, in the five-door version, Toyota's Multidrive S CVT automatic. On-the-road prices start at £13,795.

Suzuki launch retro SFV650 Gladius

SUZUKI GB today announced a limited run of its SFV650 Gladius, with a retro inspired paint scheme that gives the popular 650cc naked middleweight a unique classic Grand Prix look.

Inspired by the 1970s Suzuki RG500 Grand Prix racer, and available for a limited time only via authorised Suzuki dealers, the SFV650 offers the same great middleweight performance and handling but with added style and coolness thanks to the iconic red, black and yellow paint scheme.

Suzuki GB general manager, Paul de Lusignan, commented, "For the very first time we included our own Facebook community in the decision to bring this special edition to market. With its flowing lines the SFV lends itself perfectly to a retro scheme, and proved to be a popular choice. The recommended retail price is just £300 more than the standard model at £6,399, including a special belly-pan too, but will only be available to order for a limited time via authorised dealers. So, If you're keen we suggest you act fast."

On top of the unique colour scheme, the SFV650 is also available until September 30th on Suzuki's latest promotion, where customers get £500 off the recommended retail price of a standard machine and benefit from three years warranty and AA cover too.

For more information on the SFV650, please visit www.suzuki-gb.co.uk and for more information on Suzuki's current offer go to www.suzukimoneyoff.co.uk

Three wins for Hyundai design in automotive brand contest

HYUNDAI has received three awards at the second edition of the Automotive Brand Contest, organised by the German Design Council. The New Generation i30 won 'Best Interior' and 'Best Exterior', while the 'Best Concept' title was awarded to the i-oniq show car.

Both models were designed in Rüsselsheim, Germany, by the European team based at the Hyundai Motor Europe Technical Centre.

The two victories for New Generation i30 demonstrate Hyundai's commitment to designing products that appeal to European consumers. The car's exterior styling advances the brand's fluidic sculpture philosophy, creating a sense of constant motion, even when stationary, and conveying a confident attitude through dynamic proportions.

The interior represents a significant step forward from the original i30, closely matching the exterior for visual impact and introducing higher quality materials to the cabin.

The Hyundai i-oniq made its debut at the 2012 Geneva Motor Show, showcasing new technology and design which present an impression of the company's future thinking. Also known by its code-name, HED-8, the i-oniq is characterised by gentle feature lines and muscular surface treatment, conveying premium qualities evident in both the exterior and interior of the car, and a futuristic interior design which combines a driver-orientated cabin layout and high levels of passenger comfort.

Senior Vice President and COO of Hyundai Motor Europe, Allan Rushforth, commented, "Recognition from the German Design Council is further evidence of the transformation in Hyundai design in recent years. Styling influenced by fluidic sculpture has added emotional appeal to our products that still retain the rational characteristics that have long underpinned our brand's success. New Generation i30 is the best example yet of our focus on conceiving vehicles that match the aspirations of European consumers, as part of our product localisation strategy."

In the 2011 contest, Hyundai was awarded

'Best Exterior' for the i40 wagon – another model designed in Europe and aimed squarely at European buyers.

The winners of the Automotive Brand Contest are selected by an independent panel of experts. The jury consists of automotive designers, journalists, academics and CEOs.

Record July registrations performance by Mercedes-Benz UK

MERCEDES-BENZ UK has continued the positive momentum established through the record-breaking sales recorded in the first six-months of the year. An 11.3 per cent rise in the month of July was achieved, according to figures released today by the SMMT.

Among the highlights was a 43.6 per cent rise recorded in July for the C-Class Saloon, placing it in first place within its hard-fought competitor set. The new, 13MY C-Class range was placed ninth overall in the UK registrations for July, according to the SMMT report, recording strong results in both the private and fleet markets.

The CLS and S-Class each lead their respective markets, recording a 44.4 per cent and 39.3 per cent segment share for July.

The AMG high performance division continues its impressive start to the year, led by the C 63 AMG Saloon and the C 63 AMG Coupé. A 140.8 per cent rise in sales for AMG in July contributed to an overall 149.3 per cent rise for the year to date.

Commercial vehicles

Registrations of Mercedes-Benz vans increased by 6.7 per cent in July to record a total of 1,649 vehicles, accounting for a 15.7 per cent rise for the year to date.

The New Actros truck recorded a 67.5 per cent rise in July, contributing to a 63.4 per cent rise over the course of the year.

Marcus Breitschwerdt, President and CEO Mercedes-Benz UK, said: "In what remains a highly competitive market, Mercedes-Benz achieved record figures, performing beyond expectations. Key vehicles such as the C-Class and S-Class lead their segments, whilst our vans and trucks have each recorded double digit rises in a market that is down overall."

"We are in the midst of incredibly exciting times for Mercedes-Benz UK as we prepare for the launch of the new A-Class and the new Citan van. These are tremendous results and a fitting demonstration of the strength of the products – in terms of efficiency, relevance and desirability – we currently offer in the UK."

Don't let your driving be a flop this summer

ROAD safety organisation, and the number one for breakdown cover in the UK, GEM Motoring Assist is urging motorists to avoid driving in flip flops this summer. The dangers of driving in unsuitable footwear, particularly high heels, are widely known, however, many motorists may be less aware of the problems with flip flops. Posing multiple risks to drivers' ability to use the pedals correctly and effectively, flip flops can easily slip under the pedals, which may lead to losing control of the car and, in turn, cause an accident.

David Williams MBE, CEO of GEM Motoring Assist, comments: "Keeping an appropriate pair of shoes in the car at all times for driving is imperative, particularly during the summer months when motorists will regularly wear flip flops out and about. Any kind of distraction caused by the wrong shoes can easily cause a lapse in concentration, leading to a dangerous situation on the road.

"While there are no laws preventing drivers from wearing unsuitable footwear, we urge motorists to be prudent and do the right thing. Flip flops offer no support around the heel of your foot and can be difficult to keep on, making them unsafe to wear when driving. It is also wise, should you find yourself in a breakdown situation, to have a comfortable and sturdy pair of shoes in case you need to walk to the nearest motorway emergency phone to call for help," David concludes.

FRANCIS CLARK DEVON LEAGUE Seaton 1st XI 208-8 drew with Plym-

mouth Civil Service 276-6
AFTER last week's surprising cancellation at Yelverton Seaton 1st XIs Saturday's game against Plymouth Civil Service at Buckfastleigh took on added significance. Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and elected to bowl. This is where the positives ended as after 30 overs PCS were 207-0!

After using six different bowlers, Ben Copp returned to take the first wicket and wickets fell steadily until the hosts closed on 276-6 with Copp taking 5/72.

Seaton's first target was the losing draw score of 184 and then 200 for the full batting points.

The reply started well with Toby Tucker and Ed Hunt beginning strongly against some good bowling.

Tucker was dismissed for 18 and was soon followed by Hunt and Mike Wheeler. But the in-form Mark Bray continued his fine form and batted with confidence.

Bray was joined by 14-year-old Reid Mawdesley and the pair batted well before Bray finally fell for 48 and Pritchard, Hancock, Copp, and Morgan all lost their wickets cheaply.

This left Joe Berry and Reid to carry Seaton over the 200-run mark leaving them 208-8.

Seaton claimed 10 points which sees them drop out the top two after Yelverton and Feniton both won.

Morgan said: "Last week's cancellation was bizarre, and after hearing the conditions were actually playable at Yelverton it leaves me a bit bitter, but we have to produce a strong end to the season in order to be in with promotion chances at the end."

"On Saturday we didn't have the start we would have liked but after 20/30 overs I would have gladly taken 10 points from the game. It was nice again to see Mark Bray and Reid Mawdesley bat well."

"It was the only time a team had scored over 200 against us this season and we have to ensure that doesn't happen again if we want to be in the hunt."

Honiton 2nd XI 85 lost to Cornwood 3rd XI 86-2 by eight wickets

HONITON 2nds travelled to table-toppers Cornwood 3rd XI with only ten men and put in their worst performance in a long time.

Honiton batted first and were all out 85, Tom Strawbridge 28, Matt Reed 11, Steve Rappaul 10 being the only players to reach double figures.

Cornwood effectively won the game by taking 37 from the first four overs, before Richard Hill and Ian Kelly were given the opportunity to grab a wicket apiece for Honiton's only point of the game. Potter, Rappaul, Hemery and the Lappings performed with distinction in the field, but even defending a paltry 85 Honiton managed to concede a dismal 20 extras.

Honiton skipper Andrew Lapping said: "This season has been a big disappointment for us with so many players not making themselves available on a regular basis."

"I know there are some clubs worse off than us, but it still doesn't stop you getting frustrated by it. Next week is a big game and for the club it's important to get the win."

All Saints 177-8 beat North petherton 2nds 168 all out by nine runs.

FRASER Wallace was the star man as All Saints pulled off a narrow victory against a strong North Petherton 2nd XI side.

Asked to bat first, Saints got off to a bad start at 3-1, but James Trott (31) and Mike Nunn (29) steadied the ship with a 65 partnership.

When both fell in quick succession Fraser Wallace and Josh Short took over in some style. Short made a quick 30, while Fraser stayed around and accelerated towards the end of the innings, eventually falling for 50 as the home side posted a competitive 177-8.

In reply, Saints built early pressure through Steve Trott in particular, who went for just 10 in his first 10 overs, including six maidens and taking two wickets along the way.

Fraser again starred though, running through the Petherton side and picking up his best ever figures of 7-53. He picked up the final wicket of Jones, who had made a fine 79 and given Petherton a fighting chance but Saints edged a great win by nine runs.

ON THE SPOT...

VIEW FROM Sport puts Sidmouth CC's NICK GINGELL

UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A I have been playing cricket since I was eight years old (21 years). I have played senior cricket since I was 11. I am a firm believer in club loyalty and have been at Sidmouth all my life. I played age group representative cricket and one friendly for the Devon senior side.

Q Name the three best players you played alongside so far and why

A Neil Hancock would be number one. Will Murray is the best bowler I have played with. On talent alone - Hilton Cartwright. He was a young Australian we had a couple of years ago and was a superb athlete.

Q What's the best away ground you've played on?

A I love playing at Sandford, nice setting, good wicket and the tea is phenomenal. Away from Devon I will go for the Farmers Ground in Jersey. We currently tour there biannually and this relatively new ground gets better each time we go back.

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A Every debut I have made has been very special. From a personal viewpoint it would be the opening game this season against North Devon. I scored 58 not out coming in at 40-6 chasing 161 to win against the defending champions. We then slipped to 130-9 but I managed to hack the remaining 31 runs on my own to see us home, sealing victory with a six off Matt Westaway. From a team point of view I will never forget Plympton away in 2008. The game itself was pretty non-eventful but this was where we clinched the league title. This was the first title for most of a very young side who had stuck together since being relegated only two years previously.

Q How would you improve things at Sidmouth CC?

A We are slightly slow to react to development of the game. We tend to hang in the past rather than trying to be pioneering and dynamic.

Q What is your top score?

A I scored 172 for the 2nd XI against North Devon last year which is a current Sidmouth league record. This was my first game of cricket after 10 weeks out following an ankle operation.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Dominic Bess is the latest off the Bess family conveyor belt and is a very promising off spinner/batsman. Another name is nine-year-old Max Hancock. We have never produced a left-arm spinner at the club, something we have always cried out for and we are all crossing our fingers that Max could be the answer in the future.

LIAM LANDS CUP TRIPLE

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter
A CLOUD sat on Peak Hill, the top of the one kilometre climb at the start of the 10K Sidmouth Festival Run.

The runners set off from the green above Jacob's Ladder then clambered up to Mutter's Moor to the lovely winding woodland paths before returning to the fast downhill finish - by which time the cloud had cleared and the sun shone.

AVR's Liam Roberts was on top form to collect three trophies. He was the first runner to the summit of the hill winning the King of the Mountain trophy.

Although he admitted to slowing down a little to catch his breath, he continued fleet of foot to win the race in 38:57. His third prize of the day was to win the four-man team trophy.

In third place was new AVR member Tim Lenton taking 42:11. Simon Bayliss was pleased to come home 12th in 44:40. 15 year-old Josh Coates had a storming run to complete the winning team finishing 16th in 46:11.

Phil Bayliss, who collected the over 60 prize, chased Josh down the hill but failed to catch him crossing the line in 46:17. Thanks go to Race Director, John Perratt, and all the helpers at Sidmouth Running Club.

With Olympic action in full flow, there was a smaller than normal field for the August AVR handi-cap.

Janet Woodward won in 35:30, smashing her PB by over 3mins - don't tell the American coach or he may suspect foul play!

Irene Croad was 2nd, 39:46 and Janet Cullum 3rd, 32:06 both were PB's by around a minute. Dave Thomas was 4th, 23:56 and Jon Day 5th, 21:40.

Martin Croad now leads with 116 points followed by James Guler 96 and James Sibley 93.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

AXMINSTER with David Harris

ALL that can be said of our recent period is that we have had some really excellent matches but with no success!

The nearest we came to a win was at Culmvalle in a mixed friendly when home captain Ann more than generously declared the match an honourable draw as they had one player short on one rink and borrowed our Lady President Lilian Lovatt on another.

However, we did have one winning rink of Mike Preston, Sheila Martin, Pam Clark & Marion Harris (22-16) - it was indeed good to have Sheila back playing again.

In other mixed friendlies we lost at home to Severalls by just one shot (55-56) in a triples game with winning rinks of Margaret Brown, Mary Preston & David Harris (23-10) and John Hill, Chris Todd, & Margaret Crompton (22-16) and again at home to Devon Patrons (65-71) with a winning rink of David Sloman, Stephen Apsey, Marion Harris & David Harris (18-15) and an honourable tie for Morrison Brown, William Cook, Ken Quick & Andy Spillar (14-14).

We then had a disastrous 42-106 defeat at Donyatt with no winners before losing 67-78 at home in a triples match to Dunksell despite winning three of the four rinks played.

Our winning rinks were; Morrison Brown, Pam Clark & Ann Clayton (15-13), Lilian Lovatt, Phil White & Brian Clark (21-19) and Phil Bolwell, Pam Hunter & David Harris (17-15).

Our match at Hemyock was rained off and Ilminster Ladies were unable to raise a side for their game here.

The men lost their two Over 60s Devon

League games- first at Morchard Bishop (17-49) and then at home to Exonia (25-38) with no winning rinks.

SEATON with Linda Stone

IT was a week of mixed fortunes for Seaton "A" in the Over 60s Men's Triples League. On Wednesday, August 8th they lost narrowly to Topsham C by three shots (33 - 36) drawing on one rink and losing on the other. Top triple was Ray Thompson, Keith Miles & Ron Rowley.

On Friday, August 10th in a rearranged fixture, Seaton "A" travelled to Tiverton and beat the Division leaders, Tiverton West End B on both rinks and by 38 - 24 overall. Top triple was Peter Newton, Keith Miles & Roger Woolland.

The first friendly fixture of the week was the visit of Chard on August 9th. A Five mixed triples match was won 98-78 by Seaton. Top triple was L. Hurley-Smith, J. Russell & Dave Yardley who won 29-16.

Last Friday the ladies Triples league played away at Shaldon. They had a comprehensive win gaining all six points. M. Johnson, B. Harden & J. Miles won 30-10 and A. Mayhew, L. Stone & B. Thompson won 26-12.

The following the ladies Triples Club gathered for the Harmon Trophy. This competition is an annual competition open to any lady who has not previously won a singles competition.

The first round was played as a round-robin where four ends were played against an opponent and then everyone changed rinks.

The four ladies with the highest scores at the end of this then played a semi-final over one hour. Maria Johnson played Sue ■ FINALISTS: J. Skinner & S. Kury and A. Kury & B. Halse who contested the Three Bowl pairs competition at Feniton last week.

Smith and Linda Stone played Lillian Hurley Smith.

After a close fought competition Maria Johnson and Linda Stone won and will now contest the final later in the year.

On Sunday Seaton welcomed Bowls Devon Patrons for a six-rink game.

The Patrons play games in various clubs throughout Devon raising money for charity. They won 101 shots to 112. Seaton's top rink was S. Warrick, E. Harden, F. Dart & J. Miles.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE men's over 60s 'A' team have moved into second place in their league with a narrow 30-28 victory over previously second placed Marina B.

The match rested on the last end when the rink of E Cox, R North & R Arundell secured one shot to win their rink by 19-11.

The B team also recorded a good 38-33 win away at Pines Garden. The winning rink was; F Brooks, D Conbeer & D Evans 20-12.

The mixed team entertained Madeira and lost by 81-103. The winning rinks were; G Smith, A Hughes, Ru Clarke & G Phillips 27-9 and L Dommatt, V Jones, A Smith & A Kury 20-17.

The whole weekend was taken up with the invitation three bowl pairs competition.

The final was won by J Skinner & S Kury who defeated A Kury & B Halse by 17-10.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

BRIAN WILKES

It was a sad week for the Seniors at Axe Cliff with news of the passing of Brian Wilkes, a former Seniors' Captain and three times winner of the Masters Trophy.

Brian was the club's representative on the Devon Mens Veteran Golfers Association and was ever active in assisting in the running of the Section. He will be sorely missed.

Last Friday 31 Seniors took part in a Bowmaker for the Founders Trophy first played for last year.

The outward half is medal play and the inward nine stableford. Scoring was not easy in the increasingly breezy conditions and the winning score of 20 by Malcolm Glass (18) was an excellent return.

Two players were one shot behind on 21, and second place on countback went to Gilbert Cox (19), with Peter Knighting (15) having to settle for third place.

MAIN CLUB

THE main club competed for the Byrt Trophy with each member inviting a guest for the competition which was a combined Stableford.

The winners were Geoff Greenslade with his guest Rodney Spiller with 68 points. Second place went to father and son Philip Arbourne with 65 points. In third place Gerry Binmore and Terry Pritchard with 61 points.

The best home player was Hugh Willis with 37 points and the away player Garth Cromwell with 33.

Hugh Willis also received the prize for nearest the pin with Terry Pritchard achieving the longest drive.

LADIES

Last Wednesday and the ladies of Axe Cliff combined their annual Captain v Secretary competition with their Bring and Win.

The winners were the Captain's team who were duly presented with their prizes by Lady Captain Barbara Cummings.

First pick of the bring and win (everyone a winner) went to Janet Dack followed by Glenda Board.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

PRO'S OPEN DAY

Our Sunday game was given over to The Pro's Open Day and a full field competed for a table full of prizes.

Thankfully the home players managed to walk off with the main goodies. First, with a score of 45pts and winning Titleist Carry Bags, were Paul Vaughan & Darren England.

Second, on countback and winning Oscar Jacobson trousers and shirts, were John & Yvonne Dance. Third, just a point behind and winning Footjoy Aqualite shoes, were Kevin Thompson & Jonno Burden.

The Ladies prize of Callaway shirts went to Sue Long & Di Wall with 40pts. Adrian Cave our club professional would like to thank the members for all their support throughout the last year and into the future.

TUESDAY MIXED

THIRTY TWO players set off in murky weather to play a Rye Foursomes.

As the weather deteriorated the sensible decision was made to play just 14 holes.

The winners were Steph Barnes & Tom Chapman with 32pts and in second place were Sue Ritchie & Chris Poole with 28pts. John Dickinson & Dotty Grove were 3rd with 27pts winning on countback from Jackie Seager & Paul Witton who came 4th.

LADIES SECTION

It's well known that women are good at multi-tasking, and golf is becoming just one more opportunity to stack up the jobs in hand.

This week the Ladies Section played three competitions simultaneously - Part Two of the Marker Cup which saw Jackie Seager winning with a nett 67 and nett 79 over the two rounds.

Runner-up was Sue Ritchie with a steady nett 73 and nett 75. The Handicap Cup was also decided on Wednesday and the winner here was Diana Gee with nett 74, ahead of Sue Ritchie with nett 75.

The Golf Foundation Brooch, which is awarded to the lowest overall score in the medal, was won by Diana Gee.

In the monthly medal competition the Silver Division winner was Diana Gee with nett 74 followed by Sue Ritchie in 2nd place with nett 75.

In Bronze One division Lesley Oxenham took the honours with a nett 76 while Jenny Raison made 2nd place with nett 77 (c/b).

In Bronze Two Division, first and second places went to familiar faces Susan Hyde and Majsan Stroud with nett 82 and 83 respectively, while Sally Chapman snatched 3rd with nett 84 on c/b.

Mary's medal on show

Pavey is leading European

SIDMOUTH-based Mary King will celebrate winning her third Olympic medal with a procession down through Sidmouth town centre on Friday evening (6.30pm).

Mary was a key part of the GB team that won the silver medal at the Team Eventing equestrian competition in front of 17,000 spectators at Greenwich Village.

Mary, competing in her sixth Olympic games, held her nerve to jump a clear round on her horse Imperial Cavalier in the show-jumping leg as the Great Britain team of King, Nicola Wilson, Zara Phillips, Tina Cook and William Fox-Pitt held off the challenge of New Zealand to finish in the silver medal position behind Germany.

But Team GB's oldest competitor (51) couldn't make the medal podium in the individual event where she finished fifth.

Meanwhile, Jo Pavey failed to emulate the silver medal she won in the European championships in Helsinki in June as she finished seventh in the women's 10,000M final.

But the Honiton-born runner, the first European across the finishing line, will be pleased to have completed the race in a personal best time of 30:53:20 – the second best time ever recorded by a UK competitor.

In Saturday's 5000M event Jo, competing in her fourth Olympic games, once again reached the final and mirrored her 10,000M performance by finishing as best non-African in seventh position in a time of 15:12:72.

Britain officially handed the games over to Brazil at a glittering closing ceremony at the Olympic stadium on Sunday evening.

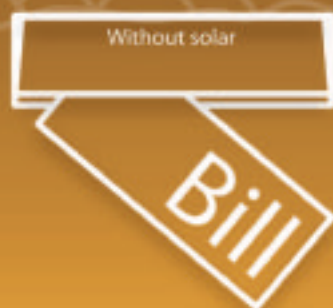

Rio de Janeiro will be the host city for the 2016 event.

■ MEDAL: Mary King will be displaying her Olympic silver medal in Sidmouth.
